(Daily 0900-1630 except Friday, 26 September, 0900-1230)

LOCATION 1000 North Glebe Road, Room 803

DESCRIPTION 1. This course replaces the COUNTER-INTELLIGENCE FAMILIARIZATION COURSE (formerly two weeks full-time).
Students registered for the CI Familiarization Course will automatically be entered in the new course.

2. For Agency staff and contract personnel who will benefit from an update and expansion of their concepts of counterintelligence.
As a survey of the topic, this course provides a perspective from which to view counterintelligence as practiced by this Agency, the U.S. intelligence community at large and among the allied and enemy nations. The student relates counterintelligence to the mission of the Clandestine Service and to the tasks of other elements of the Agency charged with intelligence production. Covers U.S. and Agency policy, doctrine and organization for CI as well as basic factors of strategy and tactics.
Students participate in a reading program followed by directed discussion and attend lectures and
